

ORDER IS REVOKED BY THE SENATORS

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S PLAN UPSET.

The Senate Suspend Forest Reservation Orders of February 22—House Tries to Hold Bi-Weekly Meetings—Caldwell Sees the President—General Capital City News.

Washington, May 7.—The senate Thursday agreed to an amendment to the sundry civil bill revoking the order of President Cleveland, made Feb. 22 last, establishing forest reservations aggregating 17,000,000 acres. The debate brought out much criticism of Mr. Cleveland's order, Senators Pettigrew, Wilson, Turner, Rawlins and White speaking against it. Mr. Gray (Del.) defended the course of Mr. Cleveland, pointing out that it was the result of an inquiry authorized by congress and conducted by the National Academy of Science.

Mr. Allison endeavored to have the amendment restricted so as to leave the question of revocation to the president, but he was defeated on a ye and nay vote, 14 to 32. Mr. Gorman made a point of order against the amendment, but this being submitted to the senate, was defeated, 23 to 25. The amendment was then agreed to without division. The sundry civil bill was passed late in the day. It carries an aggregate of $53,000,000.

During the day Mr. Bacon (Ga.) introduced a joint resolution deprecating war and announcing the policy of the government in favor of arbitration. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Mr. Jones (Ark.), democratic member of the finance committee, called attention to the fact that the comparative statement as to the tariff bill had not yet appeared. It was most desirable, he said, if the bill was to be taken up May 18, that this statement be in hand very soon.

Mr. Allison, republican member of the finance committee, said the statement would be very comprehensive, and would be ready probably next Saturday.

At 6:15 the senate adjourned to Monday.

TO-MEET BI-WEEKLY.

Speaker Reed's Policy Again Sustained by a Decisive Vote.

Washington, May 7.—The republicans of the house Thursday followed up their recent endorsement of Speaker Reed's policy of postponing the appointment of committees by establishing the policy of bi-weekly meetings through the adoption of a resolution reported by the committee on rules providing that the house shall meet on Mondays and Thursdays until further action. On this resolution the democrats and populists were solidly arrayed against the republicans, and it was adopted by a vote of 101 to 83 after a partisan debate. The opposition, led by Mr. Bailey of Texas, was based on the ground that the programme would prevent consideration of the bankruptcy bill. Mr. McMillin (dem., Tenn.) made a short but fiery speech against the resolution.

Mr. Bailey offered a substitute providing for the consideration of the bankruptcy bill on May 24, which the speaker declared out of order. A motion to recommit was lost, 93 to 105, the democrats and populists being solidly arrayed against the republicans.

Mr. Calhoun at Washington.

Washington, May 7.—W. J. Calhoun of Illinois, who has been selected by the president to go to Cuba as the special representative of the United States in the Ruiz case, had a consultation with the president Thursday. He is awaiting the arrival of Judge Day, the new assistant secretary of state, who made an exhaustive study of the case, before he leaves for Havana. If Judge Day arrives in time for him to secure the necessary information Mr. Calhoun will leave for Havana, via Tampa, Fla., on Saturday. His mission will be confined strictly to the Ruiz case.

To Meet at Tampa.

Kansas City, Mo., May 7.—The south and west grain and trade congress Thursday heard reports of committees and addresses. Samuel Lapham of Charleston, S. C., was made chairman of the congress. ### Want Americans in Hawaii.

San Francisco, Cal., May 7.—The steamer Alameda, from Honolulu, April 29, brings the news that the Hawaiian cabinet has decided, after many conferences on the labor question, that Asiatic laborers must be sooner or later replaced by Americans, and that the sooner such work was commenced the better it would be for the islands. The government decided it necessary to open a labor bureau under government auspices, planters defraying the expenses, as no public funds are available for the purpose.

FATAL FIRE RAGES AT NEW YORK CITY

FIFTY FIREMEN ARE HURT IN SERVICE.

Big Cold Storage Warehouse Goes Up In Smoke, Causing Heavy Damage and Loss of Life—At Midnight the Flames Had Made Rapid Progress Loss Is Total.

New York, May 7.—Fifty or more men disabled and one dead was the record of the New York fire department at a fierce fire at 161 to 165 Chambers street Thursday night. The fire was in the large cold storage warehouse of the Merchants' Refrigerating company, and it was the fumes of ammonia and the heaviest of smoke that struck down fireman almost by the dozen. The call for ambulances was as rapid as the call for engines. A score of doctors and nurses were summoned to do duty in saving the lives of the men risked so bravely.

The dead fireman is John Rheinhardt of engine company 7. Those overcome, some of whom are in a serious condition, include members of a dozen companies that were called out as reserves when Chief Bonner found he was losing his men on every hand. The fire was an unusual one, and is estimated to have done damage to the extent of at least $500,000.

The interior of the cold-storage warehouse was almost completely destroyed. The first floor of the building, in the basement of which the fire started, was occupied by Robert Gair as a paper warehouse. The flames spread up through the building rapidly.

The windows of the upper floors, used for cold storage, were boarded up and greatly hampered the firemen in their work. At 11 o'clock two floors fell with a crash. At midnight the flames broke through the roof of 163 Chambers street, and at a late hour were still consuming the building; lines of hose had been run up through the adjoining buildings and water was pouring upon the flames. It is said that there were 150,000 cases of eggs, containing thirty dozen each, valued at about $3 a case, in the cold-storage warehouse. These will be a total loss.

NEARLY ALL ARE IDENTIFIED

Victims of the Terrible Fire in Paris Placed in Coffins.

Paris, May 7.—With the exception of socialist newspapers the whole press associates itself with the profound sorrow which has overtaken the upper classes of French society. The papers point out that the question of the responsibility for the fearful fire at the charity bazaar must be fixed. They reproach the prefect of police for not having taken proper precautions.

The government has ordered all the subsidized theaters to be closed until Saturday as a mark of respect for the dead.

To the list of victims must be added the names Mlle. de Chevilly and the Vicomtesse d'Avenal, who have succumbed to the injuries they sustained while escaping from the fire.

The report that the Countess Castellane, formerly Miss Anna Gould, was among the missing, is pure invention. The Castellanes were not even in the vicinity of the fire.

Only five bodies now remain unidentified.

The remains of the Duchess d'Alencon were placed in a coffin Thursday afternoon in the presence of Prince Louis and Prince Ferdinand of Bavaria, Baron Lambert and Col. de Percival, who signed their names on the sealed coffin. The Duc de Vendome, son of the duchess, was also present.

Other victims whose remains have been identified are Mme. de Villeneuve, Mme. Cordoot, Mme. Blinkey, Mme. de Cousson, Mme. Gerty, Sister St. Claire and Dr. Rochet Maserue.

The American chamber of commerce of Paris adopted a resolution setting forth that the chamber is "deeply pained at the terrible misfortune which has just caused the premature death of so many prominent persons, and expresses its most keen and most sincere sympathy, and sends to the families of the victims who gave their lives in the cause of charity and benevolence the assurance of its deep and respectful condolence."

Late last night, while a number of the firemen were in the loft playing cards, a citizen discovered flames in the fire department building and gave the alarm. The firemen scurried out, but before the teams could be taken from the building horses were dropping down around the horses, and it was all the men could do to save the engine and hose carts. The building was burned.

THE POWER DECIDE TO LAND TROOPS

MAKE PLANS TO PROTECT DYNASTY.

Turkey Will Negotiate On Easy Terms If Greece Will Evacuate the Island of Crete—Austria and Germany Now Said to Favor Mediation—War News.

London, May 7.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Berlin says it is reported there that the powers have decided to land troops at Athens to protect the dynasty, Greece having declined to proffer mediation and Turkey being willing to negotiate on easy terms if Crete is evacuated by the Greeks.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Rome says that the pac. of the powers constituting the triple alliance was renewed Thursday for a period of six weeks. The right to withdraw, under the terms of the original agreement, expired on May 6, and Germany has succeeded in persuading Italy not to exercise the right of withdrawal.

JOIN THE POWERS.

Austria and Germany Now Said to Favor Mediation.

Athens, May 6.—Austria and Germany have joined the other powers in proposing mediation between Greece and Turkey.

Gen. Smolenski is retreating slowly and in orderly fashion to Almyro, and Volo has been almost completely evacuated. The forces under Prince Constantine reached Domokos unmolested, and have not been attacked to-day. It appears that the great massing of Turkish troops and their movements led to a suspicion that an attempt was being projected to surround Pharsala. A council of war was held in the Greek camp, and it was decided to retire to Domokos, which was reached this morning at dawn. The Greeks promptly occupied strong positions on the mountain range overlooking Domokos. During Wednesday night the Turks continued to execute movements with a view of outflanking Pharsala, and only discovered at daybreak this morning that the Greek army had retired.

The retreat began at 3 o'clock this morning, and the occupation of the new position at Domokos was finished at 10. The Greeks buried their dead and conveyed eighty-eight wounded, including five officers, to Lami. Gen. Smolenski wired to Athens for instructions, and the government advised him to retreat.

A collective note will be handed to the Greek and Turkish governments this (Thursday) evening or to-morrow calling upon them to cease hostilities on the distant assurance that the powers will undertake the final solution of pending difficulties.

Greek Troop Are Disgusted.

London, May 7.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Patras says: "The Greeks have not obtained the slightest advantage since the Turkish advance began. The recall of the whole army to Arta for the third time has caused intense disgust among the troops, whose spirits will be fatally dampened unless they are allowed to go ahead."

Despair at Greek Capital.

London, May 7.—According to special dispatches from Athens the news of the evacuation of Pharsala has caused unqualified despair at the Greek capital, and the irritation is finding vent against the powers for non-interference and threatens to become so strong as to compel M. ONE WEEK'S EVENTS
IN THIS COUNTY

WHAT THE FOLK OF OLD ROCK
DID.

The Funeral of C. S. Swan, At Milton, Was Largely Attended—Other News of the College Village—Some Gossip From Orfordville, Footville, and Other Places.

THE GAZETTE AGENCY.
W. W. CLARK, Manager,
Milton, Wis., May 4, 1897.
The funeral services of the late Charles S. Swan were held Tuesday afternoon at the Seventh day Baptist church, the officers of which had kindly tendered its use and the attendance was large. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. Anderson, of Juda, a former pastor of deceased, assisted by Rev. C. E. Carpenter, of whose church deceased was a member. There were appropriate floral offerings from Odd Fellows citizens, friends and the class in the public school of which Master Willie Swan, the eldest son is a member. At the cemetery the burial service of the Odd Fellows was used and some sixty of that order, were in attendance, including a delegation from the Inda Lodge in which Mr. Swan held his membership. Among those from out of town present at the funeral were the following relatives and friends, W. W. Swan, of Denver, Col., Mrs. C. F. Carlson, of Chicago, N. Dunwiddie, F. Dunwiddie, B. L. Dunwiddie and wife of Janesville, D. Dunwiddie of Juda, George Corson and daughter of Madison, Mrs. Charles Corson of Janesville, T. Burbank and wife of Rockford, Ill.; John Swan and wife, J. Y. The Damage Claim Paid.
The board of supervisors made a settlement with Thomas Helgeson, of the town of Janesville on Wednesday, for the injury which he received on the highway across the marsh, near Mrs. Bingham's, in the north part of the township. The man named was injured by the tipping over of a load of household goods, which pinned him to the ground, and so seriously injured his foot that an amputation of a portion of it may yet be necessary. While the supervisors doubt the liability of the town for damages, yet the proneness of an average jury to bring in a verdict against a corporation or town when the plaintiff is a poor man, with little regard to the justice or legality of the claim, decided them to settle the matter and they secured a settlement for $350, which relieves the town from any further claim on the part of Helgeson.

FOOTVILLE FOLK ARE PLEASED.
Young People's Society Enjoyed the Visit to Janesville—Other News.

Footville, Wis. May 7.—Last Tuesday evening the Young People's Society of the Baptist church of Janesville, charmingly entertained the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church of Footville, also the same society of Center. Many refreshments were daintily served and an excellent programme rendered greatly to the enjoyment of all present. Their guests departed about midnight hoping again to meet their brothers and sisters in the Lord's work, as all feel that a co-mingling of the different societies are productive of much good both socially and spiritually. Mrs. Ed. Little of Albany, spent last week visiting her mother and sister of this place. Dr. and Mrs. Lacey made a flying visit to Beloit last Thursday. Jack Wells had the misfortune to fall from a ladder and fracture two of his ribs. Mrs. Penick spent two days of last week the guest of her friend, Mrs. Oliver Richards of Janesville. The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church will hold a special meeting next Thursday. Sewing will be the order of the afternoon.

Barker's Corners News.
Barker's Corner, May 7.—There will be quarterly meeting services at the U. B. church Sunday morning May 9. The presiding elder Wm. Perry will be here. The Ladies Aid society will meet with Mrs. Miller again next Thursday afternoon May the 13th. The social at O. N. Dutton's was well attended considering the busy time and all report a good time. Mrs. Stockmen and Mrs. Miller were callers in this vicinity one day this week.

The Blessing Of Strong Nerves
Is recoverable, not by the use of mineral sedatives, but by recourse to effective tonic treatment. Opiates and the like should only be used as auxiliaries, and then as sparingly as possible. Vigorous nerves are quiet ones, and the most direct way to render them so is to reinforce the vital energies. That sterling invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will be found all-sufficient for this purpose, since it entirely removes impediments to thorough digestion and assimilation of food, so that the body is insured its due amount of nourishment, and consequently of stamina. Rheumatic tendencies and affections of the kidneys and bladder are also counteracted by the Bitters, which is besides a thorough medicinal stimulant, infinitely purer than the raw extracts of commerce, which react injuriously on the nervous system.

WILL GET MORE FOAM
UNDER NEW RULE

THE EFFECT OF THE PROPOSED
BEER TAX.

Local Brewers Are Not Pleased With the Plan, Saying That Consumers Will Get Less For Their Money—Opinions Differ, However, Among Those Interested.

Local brewers are anything but pleased with the idea of the proposed increase of the tax on beer from $1 to $1.44. This move, they claim, will hurt the retailer as well as themselves. A local brewer in speaking of the matter says that the increased tax will either result in a higher price to the consumer which will cut down the output, or it will curtail the measure to the poor man.
The saloon men are not unanimous in their opinions concerning the effects of the amendment proposed by the senate finance committee. Some think it will injure their business. Others believe that the increased tax will be simply paid immediately by the consumers.
What the Tax Amounts To.
One well known saloonkeeper said he did not believe that the brewers would increase the wholesale price of beer if the tax should be increased to the amount proposed by the senate committee. Even if the tax were added to the price of beer, it would enhance the price of a barrel to a saloonkeeper by not more than 44 cents. The retailer would have to pay nearly 6 cents more for a "eighth" or a trifle over the retail selling price of one glass of beer whether "snit" or "schooner." As there are about eighty glasses of beer in an "eighth," the loss of the price received for one of them would not work very great hardships on the saloon keeper.

AN IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE
And Important Change in Time on C. M. & St. P. R. Y. Sunday, May 9.

A vestibuled train of through sleepers, reclining chair cars and coaches will leave Chicago at 6:30 p. m. daily except Saturday, via Milwaukee: leaving Milwaukee at 8:50 p. m., running via Milton, Madison and McGregor to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Mitchell, Dakota, and points in Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota, without change of cars. Sleeping car reservations can be taken from Milton Junction direct. Train leaves Janesville to connect with the above train at 10:15 p. m. p. m. except Saturday; and returning will arrive in Janesville at 11:15 p. m., carrying passengers from Chicago, Milwaukee and points intermediate. This obviates leaving Janesville at 4:40 p. m. for Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota points and awaiting six hours at McGregor. There are so many advantages to the traveling public in this service as to ensure large patronage. The 4:40 p. m. train for Prairie du Chein and the 7 p. m. train for Madison will run as heretofore. The 7 a. m. train for Milwaukee will be daily. This train has been leaving at 7:30 a. m. on Sunday.
The Milwaukee train heretofore leaving at 5 a. m. will leave at 10:30 a. m. daily except Sunday. The trains from Milwaukee on Sunday will arrive at 7:40 and 11:15 p. m. Other trains as heretofore.

THE DATE OF MEMORIAL DAY.
Celebration to Be Held On Different Days This Year.

The fact that Memorial day falls on Sunday this year will prolong services over three days in Wisconsin. Commander Jones issued an order from department headquarters, asking the posts to celebrate on Saturday, and subsequently issued another order making it Monday, the day which will be legal holiday in the courts and government offices. The second order was too late, as some of the posts had begun their arrangements. The date does not matter much, since the services everywhere are independent of each other, and interests will not conflict.

Speaker... ALEXANDER E. MATHESON

Chaplain... REV. ROBERT C. DENISON

The citizens' committee and the G. A. R. committee met at the council chamber last evening to make plans for Memorial day. Mayor Thoroughgood was elected chairman and A. A. Fathers secretary. W. G. Palmer stated that the G. A. R. committee had secured Alexander E. Matheson as the speaker, and on motion of James Sennett, of the citizens' committee, the action was confirmed. C. D. Child moved that Mayor Thoroughgood be chosen as president of the day, and the motion prevailed. On W. G. Palmer's motion, Dr. J. B. Whitening was chosen as marshal. The matter of securing martial music was left to the G. A. R. committee. A committee consisting of C. D. Child, L. H. Lee and George H. Osgood was appointed by the chair to secure the vocal music, and ascertain the terms on which a brass band can be engaged. The chair on motion of W. G. Palmer appointed a finance committee consisting of James A. Fathers, James Sennett and George H. Osgood.

On motion of Jas. A. Fathers Rev. Robert C. Denison, of the Congregational church was selected as chaplain.

A committee on program was appointed by the chair consisting of Dr. J. B. Whitening, E. J. Kent, E. O. Kimberley and Geo. H. Osgood. A committee on transportation was also appointed consisting of C. D. Child, W. G. Palmer and James Sennett.

The secretary was instructed to invite the military and civic societies to turn out and participate in the parade and the meeting then adjourned until Thursday, May 13, at 8 o'clock at the common council chamber, to hear a report from the finance committee.

MADAM FONTANA A WONDER.

An Eau Claire Paper Says She Beats the X Ray.

In speaking of the attraction to be seen at the Myers Grand on May 10, the Eau Claire Leader says: "The best night so far was last night at the opera house, which was well filled by an intelligent and appreciative audience. Madam Fontana astonished them all in mental telepathy. It is truly astonishing how this lady can see right into a man's waistcoat pocket. She beats the X Rays all hollow. No matter what the object, was produced. Madam Fontana blindfolded and sitting on the stage could tell all that was in it. For instance in the card test, when a number of cards are held up for a person to look at, the lady is asked 'What card am I thinking of?' She immediately gave the name of the card thought of. She could tell the figures on watches, coins, tickets and everything. She could tell how the watch was built, the maker, number, etc. Considerable laughter was then produced by the professor laying his hand on the top of a gentleman's head and asking 'what have I here?' to which Madam replied 'a bald head.' The hypnotism in the second part was very funny indeed. But tonight, Friday night, will excel all others. No one should miss it. Go early and get a good seat.

"The intensely interesting experiments by Miss Grace Eden as witness will be repeated tonight by special request of many citizens. Prominent persons will constitute an investigating committee and one of the Fontana's best performances will be given. Ladies free tonight."

It should be made a matter of public knowledge that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will speedily cure piles of the longest standing. It is the house hold favorite for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sores of all kinds. C. D. Stevens.

South Dakota in Springtime

Is clothed with verdure green and spotted with beautiful blue and white prairie flowers, tokens of luxuriant soil like that fair country to which Moses led the children of Israel in ancient times.

And like unto that land of plenty, South Dakota outrivals its sister states of the east in the products of its soil, sown, cultivated and harvested in less time and with greater ease than in any other portion of the United States.

And so we say unto you that now is the opportunity of a lifetime to "Go west and buy a farm." For descriptive lists and prices, address Geo. H. Heafford, G. P. A., Chicago, Ill.

GROUP and whooping cough are children's terrors; but like pneumonia, bronchitis and other throat and lung troubles can be quickly cured by using One Minute Cough Cure. C. D. Stevens.

The Sunshine State

Is the title of a generously illustrated pamphlet of sixteen pages in reference to South Dakota, the reading matter in which was written by an enthusiastic South Dakota lady—Mrs. Stella Hoerner Arnold—who has been a resident of the Sunshine State for over ten years. A copy will be mailed to the address of any farmer or farmer's wife, if sent at once to Geo. H. Heafford, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, Chicago, Ill.

THIRTY years is a long time to fight so painful a trouble as piles, but Jacob Mitchell, of Unionville, Pa., struggled that long before he tried De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, which quickly and permanently cured him. It is equally effective in eczema and all skin affections. C. D. Stevens.

Motherhood.

A mother who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution. The child fairly drinks in health from its mother's robust constitution before birth, and from a healthy mother's milk after.

Is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity?

Do you know the meaning of what is popularly called those "longings," or cravings, which beset so many women during pregnancy?

There is something lacking in the mother's blood. Nature cries out and will be satisfied at all hazards.

One woman wants sour things, another wants sweets, another wants salt things, and so on.

The real need all the time is to enrich the blood so as to supply nourishment for another life, and to build up the entire generative system, so that the birth may be possible and successful.

If expectant mothers would fortify themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for twenty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be fewer disappointments at birth, and they would not experience those annoying "longings."

In the following letter to Mrs. Pinkham, Mrs. Whitney demonstrates the power of the Compound in such cases. She says:

"From the time I was sixteen years old till I was twenty-three, I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys and terrible pains when my monthly periods came on. I made up my mind to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was soon relieved. After I was married, the doctor said I would never be able to go my full time and have a living child, as I was constitutionally weak. I had lost a baby at seven months and a half. The next time I commenced at once and continued to take your Compound through the period of pregnancy, and I said then, if I went my full time and the baby lived to be three months old, I should send a letter to you. My baby is now seven months old and is as healthy and hearty as one could wish.

"I am so thankful that I used your medicine, for it gave me the robust health to transmit to my child. I cannot express my gratitude to you; I never expected such a blessing. Praise God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and may others who are suffering do as I did and find relief, and may many homes be brightened as mine has been."—MRS. L. Z. WHITNEY, 5 George St., E. Somerville, Mass.

Pertinent Advice.

Of course they were dear friends, but they were not on the best of terms, a condition of affairs that is possible only with the fair sex.

"Of course one is never thanked for giving advice, no matter how good it is," said the young maid, "but if I were you—"

"Well?" returned the maid who was not so young.

"If I were you," continued the young maid, "and was still looking for a good opportunity to get married, I would give my attention to that branch of knowledge that seemed to promise best results under the circumstances."

"Which is?" said the maid who was not so young, inquiringly.

"The study and practice of hypnotism,"—Chicago Post.

The Writing on the Wall.

"You don't call on Miss Cutting any more, I hear, Blobber?"

"No."

"Did she reject you?"

"Not exactly. But when I first began calling there was a mat at the door with the word 'Welcome' woven in it, and a motto on the wall that read: 'Let Us Love One Another.' Later I noticed that the doormat was changed for one that said: 'Wipe your feet,' and a motto declaring that 'Early to bed and early to rise, makes you healthy, wealthy and wise,' had the place of the other one."—Tit-Bits.

"All right," said the old man. "Tell Mike to give you the whiting and ammonia and then you go out and polish up the sign."—Indianapolis Journal.

Her Easy Method.

"No; she likes it."

"Likes it?"

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Becker, of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

BELLS NOT NEEDED THE COURT SAYS

DOG WHISTLE A MEANS OF "SUFFICIENT ALARM."

A. M. Valentine Is Discharged, the Ordinance On That Point Being N. G.—New Ordinance Will Now Be Gotten Up Making Bells Almost a Household Necessity—The Trial.

Then a "bell clause" will be gotten up that will stand fire and water. In the meantime, however, a whistle will do. The clause of the ordinance relating to lamps is sufficient, so if you are caught riding out at night with a wheel, but without a light, the police can take you in charge on sight, and 'twill be cheaper not to fight. These points were settled in the municipal court this morning.

A. M. Valentine Discharged. A. M. Valentine will not be required to linger in a damp cell, not even to pay into the coffers of the city, a fine.

Mr. Valentine did not violate the city ordinance when he rode a wheel without a bell. Riders do not have to wear bells. If they carry a whistle, the ordinance is lived up to. The bell clause is N. G. For that reason, Mr. Valentine was discharged by Judge Phelps. The law requiring cyclists to carry lamps is all right. Judge Phelps recommended that a new ordinance be drawn up, fixing the bell business so that it would hold. The present clause provides that cyclists shall carry a suitable whistle or bell. The new one will provide that a bell shall be carried, but whistles will be ignored.

Audience at the Trial. The trial of Mr. Valentine was an interesting one, and was well attended. Attorney and cyclists were out in force and several ladies were present. Judge Phelps, after reading the ordinance aloud several times, stated that under the provisions, Mr. Valentine had complied with the requirements. Hence, he must discharge the defendant.

"When Chief Hogan arrested me," said Mr. Valentine while he was testifying, "he said it will be a good joke to get you into court."

City Attorney McElroy will now have a new city ordinance framed, leaving the whistle sentence out. Thus the new ordinance will do away with all guess work as to alarms, and people who ride without bells can be taken care of. Other new features, it is said, will also be included in the new ordinance. The question of riding on the sidewalks in the city limits is to receive serious consideration from the aldermen, it is said, and several changes may be made. The principal features, however, will be iron-clad bell and lamp regulations.

HE WAS A THRIFTY FARMER

Shows What Hogs Will Do On a Corn and Skim Milk Diet.

A German farmer living near Milton has given his neighbors an object lesson in feeding hogs for market. He bought twenty-eight head, paying $4 per hundred for them, bought corn in the ear at $4.50 per ton, feeding it and also his skim milk from the factory. He fed his cows and horses out of the same corn. He sold his hogs today at $3.60 per hundred and cleared a profit of $100 on the drove. The corn in pork brought over $15 per ton.

They were all in one nest, snugly packed, and their eyes had been open but a short time when discovered. Mr. Eveland has three trained dogs to aid him.

M'LEAN IS FINED FOR AN ASSAULT

ALDERMAN WAS IN COURT THIS AFTERNOON.

W. F. Whaley, a St. Paul Business Man, Charges That the City Father Struck Him—Court Could See No Extenuating Circumstances, and Said the Assault Seemed Unprovoked

INKING a man's neck up does not settle the matter of how much a trade dollar is worth, and the fact that a trade dollar may or may not be worth one hundred cents, does not justify one man in punching another. Consequently, Alderman J. B. McLean paid a fine of $5 and costs in the municipal court this afternoon, Judge Phelps saying that the charge of assault and battery had been sustained by the evidence; that extenuating circumstances seemed to be lacking; and that Alderman McLean had not extended a very friendly greeting to the "stranger within our gates."

The trouble grew out of the changing of a $10 bill at McLean's saloon, by a boy who works in a nearby barber shop, the boy claiming that he had gotten a trade dollar from McLean. The plaintiff in the case, W. F. Whaley, a traveling man, got shaved at the barber shop. The barber could not change the bill, so the boy was sent to McLean's for change. After receiving his money back Mr. Whaley returned to the hotel. He then found that he had a "trade dollar." On his way down town he stopped at the barber shop, and told the proprietor. The boy was then sent to McLean's with the dollar, Whaley going with him.

McLean, Mr. Whaley says, used very bad language, and ordered them out of the place, striking him in the neck. "I never heard such language in all my life," said Mr. Whaley, going into details.

After taking the stand, McLean decided to plead guilty, the court imposing a $5 fine and giving the defendant some plain talk in the course of which he said that Mr. Whaley had apparently acted the part of a perfect gentleman and done nothing to provoke an assault. Mr. Whaley is a member of the Whaley Manufacturing Co., of St. Paul, manufacturers of bicycle specialties their factory being located at 108 and 110 South Robert street.

TO RECEIVE THE GRAND LODGE

Delegates Will Be Given All Possible Courtesies When Here.

Janesville people are planning to entertain the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 11, 12, and 13. The meeting will convene on May 11 at 10 o'clock in the morning, at Concordia hall. The mayor and common council will attend, and Mayor Thoroughgood will extend the welcome of the city. President Vankirk will extend the welcome of the Business Men's association.

On Wednesday the local lodge will entertain the Grand Lodge with an excursion up the river, on the Columbia. The boat will leave at 1:30 and Smith's orchestra of eight pieces will play. All members of the Knights of Pythias in the city are invited and expected to help entertain the visitors. The Beloit and Evansville lodges—the only lodges in the city outside of Janesville have been invited to be present.

The Rathbone sisters will also hold their grand temple here at the same time, and an effort will be made to organize a Janesville lodge of that order.

All merchants should decorate their stores in honor of the grand lodge, in order that the delegates may feel that a welcome has been extended them. Private homes should also be decorated, and in fact, the whole city should be in gala attire. The flag of the order, etc., can be secured at W. J. Skelly's, J. Sutherland & Son, Bort, Bailey & Co's and J. W. Bostwick & Sons.

BARBER IS CAUGHT BY THE SHERIFF

MAN WHO ROBBED G. H. ER- REDGE IN JAIL.

He Was Captured By Mr. Acheson at Michigan City, Indiana, and Admitted His Guilt—Part of the Stolen Goods Were Found In a Chicago Pawnshop By Officers.

ROTHUR Robinson, the barber who is charged with robbing the George H. Erredge barber shop and jewelry store in this city a few days ago, is now behind the bars at the Rock county jail.

Robinson has admitted his guilt and there is little doubt but what he will soon be booked at Waupun.

Sheriff Acheson is responsible for Robinson's capture. He was found at Michigan City, Indiana, yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Since his departure from this city the police have believed that he went to Chicago, and on visiting that city Sheriff Acheson found a clew that lead him to Michigan City. Late yesterday afternoon he located Robinson in a barber shop where had hired out. He was at once taken to jail and this morning at 4 o'clock they left Michigan City, arriving in Janesville on the 11:30 o'clock train. The greater portion of the stolen property had been disposed of, but in a South Clark street pawn shop a portion of the property was recovered, including a watch, hair clippers, six razors, thirty pair glasses, three chains, and a number of pairs of cuff and collar buttons.

About Sweet Girl Graduates—Advice
About the Complexion—Embroidered
Gowns May Be Made at Home Evenings—Latest in Frocks.

Oh, Fairest of the Rural Maids.
H. FAIREST of the rural maids!
Thy birth was in the forest shades;
Green boughs, and glimpses of the sky
Were all that met thy infant eye.

Thy sports, thy wanderings, when a child.
Were ever in the sylvan wild;
And all the beauty of the place
Is in thy heart and on thy face.

The twilight of the trees and rocks
Is in the light shade of thy locks;
Thy step is as the wind that weaves
Its playful way among the leaves.

Thine eyes are springs, in whose serene
And silent waters heaven is seen;
Their lashes are the herbs that look
On their young figures in the brook.

The forest depths, by foot unpress'd,
Are not more silver than thy breast;
The holy peace that fills the air
Of those calm solitudes, is there.

About Graduates.

E. M. H. would like to know: 1. When and where presents other than flowers and books should be given to graduates? 2. Also if the pupils should present anything to their teacher, if so, what should it be, and when ought it to be given? 3. Could artificial flowers be worn? 4. How should the parents congratulate the graduates? 5. How should any friend congratulate a number of graduates? Answer: 1. It is not the usual custom to give presents other than flowers to graduates, but there is no objection to making such presents if one chooses. They should be given or sent to the residence. 2. It is a matter of choice if pupils give a remembrance to the teacher. A highly appreciated gift would be some text books or set of rare works, or any book or books that the teacher has been heard to desire or specially admire. It might be given during the last days of the school or after or before the graduating exercises. 3. Artificial flowers are sometimes worn, and it is occasionally necessary to wear them or none at all, as fresh flowers are not always to be had. 4 and 5. There are no set phrases for congratulation. The heartiest expression of good will, those that come from the deepest feeling, are rarely studied. If, however, one wishes for something marked, he might say that the class, having fairly and honorably acquitted themselves, are now ready to engage in the conflict of life. They are like soldiers going forth equipped for the war. May they return victorious with the spoils of conquest.

Embroidered Gowns.

The embroidered gowns of to-day recall a gown which I braided when these same gowns were so fashionable a few seasons ago. It looked like a tremendous task, but in reality took but a few evenings which I would have idled away. My dress was a soft green cashmere embroidered with white silk braid. The embroidered gown of to-day is soft green, appliqued with ribbon design in grass cloth and braided over with cord in the same color. Of course it's an easy matter to have a gown stamped and embroidered in this manner. Such gowns naturally can only be worn for dressy occasions. A more substantial green dress is embroidered in black, cloth being used for the applique ribbon. The cord should be sewed down with silk on which an occasional jet bead is strung. Black and other somber-hued gowns are embroidered with black and gold cord. Or plain black cord may be used and a tiny silver or gold braid sewed against it. Embroidery is rarely put on in a straight border around the skirt. The front panel is often entirely covered, the design narrowing off on the side gores. Others have a deep point in front, the pattern rising at the sides and encircling the skirt half way up. Many skirts have the entire upper part covered with embroidery. This style, however, is not to be recommended, because it makes the figure thick and is very ungraceful.—The Latest.

The New Silk.

The one great novelty in the coming millinery fashions is the use of vegetable silk for the fancy plaits, which are at least an inch wide. This has the most silky and charming sheen upon it. The more expensive kinds are made entirely of vegetable silk, but it is imitated in silk combined with hemp. Here, again, the range of colors is very bright, indeed; vivid pinks, yellows, greens, petunia shades and many others are ready to be made up into the fashionable hats and bonnets, while others show a combination of two colors and sometimes three, such as pink, yellow, light green and cream. It is very light and is likely to effect quite a revolution. This same fabric has been woven into an open gauze of a very light, thin make in various colorings, and it is being ruched and gathered to form ruches for the inside of hats. Some of them are shot, and many of these vegetable silk straws have the two colors combined in such a way that they also appear to be lace, while quite a new notion is narrow straw freely striped in two colors with the same effect of combined coloring.

Flounced and Braided Frocks.

New York fashionable women are now wearing so-called Lenten gowns, which in reality are nothing more nor less than early spring gowns, made up in soft grays and browns and blues. A charming gown worn by a tall, slim woman is of corduroy velveteen, in a golden brown tint. The skirt fitted smoothly at the waist and hung with that "clinging" effect so desirable in a velvet gown. This effect, you will remember, is secured by lining the skirt with flannel or flannelette. What made the gown particularly striking were the tiny flounces of black satin ribbon which were inserted in the seams of both the skirt and the box coat. Another pretty gown, which is attracting considerable attention, is of the new reddish lilac, called cyclamen. The material is a light-weight ladies' cloth, heavily embroidered in black braid. Six rows of plain black braid encircle the skirt, and above it a scroll design in cord is traced. The bodice is tight-fitting and rather long. It is slashed nearly to the waistline, and each slash is adorned with rows of braid, to match the skirt trimming. From waistline to bust the waist is then covered with cord embroidery, also matching the skirt. Over each shoulder, both front and back, fall three elongated plaits, that also carry out the trimming scheme. They are lined with black silk and are fastened down on each side with four jet buttons. The sleeves are leg-o-mutton, with cuffs of braid.—The Latest.

ONE DISEASE AND ONE REMEDY

"The art of painting," said Millais, "consists in selecting the right colors and putting them in the right place."—"The way to win a battle," said Napoleon, "is to mass your troops at the critical moment against the weakest spot in the enemy's line."—"The way to cure many ailments," said the great Dr. Abercrombie, "is to purify the poisoned spring in which they arise, generally the torpid and inflamed digestive system."

Thus wisdom and experience simplify and condense. Thus the Shakers of Mount Lebanon reasoned when they sought, and finally found, a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. Where one person has something else, they argued, a thousand have this. To cure this alone will almost rid the world of sickness. Why should we vex ourselves with confusing definitions? A good digestion is life and health; a bad one disease and death. Hence, from the healing and stimulating mountain herbs, they extracted the principles which make the Shaker Digestive Cordial the rarest and most effective of medicines for one disease, and one only—indigestion and dyspepsia.

Do you suffer from any of these miserable feelings?—depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, bad taste in the mouth, wind in the bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness and alarm, worry and weariness, costiveness or irregularity of the bowels, nausea, palpitation, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite and sleep, dry skin, etc.—?

Don't indulge in fifty foolish fancies. You have indigestion and dyspepsia and nothing else. Set the disordered stomach right with the one medicine which will surely do it, Shaker Digestive Cordial, and these symptoms will vanish with their cause. A good effect will follow the first doses. Even chronic cases soon yield.

Test the cordial, at practically no cost, by taking a teacupful bottle. For sale by nearly all druggists.

JAPANESE CHRYSANTHEMUMS.

[The Japanese have a legend to the effect that the dewy juices in the heart of kiku, or chrysanthemum, are the elixir of life. The following translation from a native poet, Marumi Senti, touches upon this point.]

O bloom of chrysanthemums,
Faded of old
A fountain of rapture
And sweetness untold!

The dewy wine sparkled
With life in its flame,
And mortals partaking
Immortal became.

But, lo, there hath opened
A wonderful flower,
For God's love hath blossomed.
Soul life is its dower.

And its petals shall shine
More enduring than thine
With their fabulous treasures of life giving wine
For fairyland's store.

And its dewdrops shall glow,
And its fragrance shall grow
From more unto more
While the years come and go.

A LOVE CHASE.

"Tomorrow on the Paris?" cried Carter, dropping his cane on the pavement with a resounding thud.

"Yes, tomorrow," said I, gazing with astonishment on my friend, for my commonplace gossip had apparently perturbed him greatly. "The whole family are going to sail, and they will be away for a year. It's very sudden."

"Sudden! I should say so!" he exclaimed. He looked thoughtfully up the avenue for a moment, then stammered, "Miss Margaret too?"

"Yes," I replied. "Thereupon he hailed a passing cab, and before I could get another word with him dived into the vehicle and quickly disappeared with it."

Carter is not a bad fellow. He is exceedingly modest. This is a most unusual characteristic for a young man who is spending a fortune gathered by another's talents, but to so great a degree does he possess it that it seemed to him impossible that Margaret Walcott should look upon him with other than indifference or even repugnance.

"Why, Vandergrust," he said to me one Sunday afternoon, when he had dropped in on his way to her house, "it's ridiculous to suppose that a bright girl like that could care for a fellow like me—a fellow who doesn't know anything, who has not a striking point except money—when there are so many men with brains about."

But, acting on my advice, he actually started to propose that very afternoon. "Miss Walcott," he began as they sat by the fireplace in the drawing room talking commonplaces, "I'm in love."

"Really! How interesting!" cried the girl, calmly leaning toward him and gazing at him, awaiting the rest of his revelations.

There was a long silence, during which Carter carefully drew his left glove on his right hand. Having recovered his courage, he continued naively: "I know who it's with. Do you know who it's with?"

"Yourself," she cried, clapping her hands as though she had made a wonderful discovery.

"Oh, dear, no! Never!" he stammered. "Positively not. You really don't think so, do you?"

"I was just guessing," she replied soothingly.

"Guess again," said he quickly. "With Livia Vandergrust," ventured Miss Walcott after she had given the matter due consideration, gazing meditatively into the fire, thus unconsciously showing to Carter the fine profile of her face, which glowed in the red light of the coals.

"Don't accuse me of it," cried my friend in a deprecating tone that was most uncomplimentary to my charming cousin. "Guess somebody nearer home."

And the foolish fellow kept her guessing the name of every girl in town but the right one until the maid brought in Derby's card.

Was it a wonder that, knowing these facts, I smiled when I saw Carter dash away in a cab after I had imparted to him the news? It was sufficient to send him up the steps of the Walcott house in three bounds when his cab drew up there. Miss Walcott was out. "At last!" he ventured to inquire of the maid.

"Yes," here arose a predicament. He knew of no less than five that afternoon. But he had heard that she was to be at the Trumptons' dinner that night, and his sole chance of seeing her lay in finding her that very afternoon or following her over Europe.

So he started in at Mrs. J. Anderson Oglesby's and most perfunctorily paid his respects to that energetic woman and her extremely plain daughter. Then he searched every corner of the crowded drawing rooms and even took a surreptitious glance into the butler's pantry.

"Isn't that Miss Walcott yonder?" he said to the young girl who was pouring tea, indicating a mass of black hair that was conspicuous in the crush.

"Why, no," she cried, gazing at him in astonishment. "She has light hair. And, besides, she left hours ago. I should think!"

The rest of the remark was lost on my friend, who dashed from the room and the house and was off in his cab once more.

He searched in vain for her at the Partridges', the Joneses' and the Van Blunders', and at length reached the house of my aunt, who was on that afternoon performing the arduous physical labor of introducing her daughter to society. Great, indeed, was my cousin's astonishment when Bennington Carter was announced, for she knew that he abhorred teas. But greater still was her amazement when he let fall the hand she held out to him, turned suddenly, craned his neck so as to see over the knot of women about the door and dashed madly from the room.

Carter had seen her at last, but it was only a glimpse as the door closed upon her. He rushed up the stairs to the dressing room and bounded down again to his cab.

"Which way did Miss Walcott's carriage go?" he cried to the man who called his conveyance for him.

"Up Fifth avenue, sir," replied that astonished man.

"After it!" exclaimed Carter, jumping in and slamming the door.

The bewildered Jehu swung his vehicle around the corner and dashed up the avenue, crowded with carriages. Eight blocks, however, told on the beast, and the driver found it expedient to draw up at the curb and hold a colloquy with his fare.

"So you have lost it, eh?" cried Carter angrily.

"Yes, sir," replied the cabby. He tipped his hat most respectfully in the hope of mollifying the angry man.

Carter threw himself moodily back in the seat and for a time was silent. It was already dark. The pavement was filled with people hurrying home after the day's work. He had visited every place where he could have hoped to find her, yet lost her. Of a sudden he leaned through the window and to the cabby said, "Do you see any awnings about here?"

The man pierced the gloom with his eyes and at length pointed meaningly with his whip down a side street to a residence in front of which a score of carriages were gathered and an awning stretched from curb to curb.

"At it!" cried the fare.

Carter quickly ascended the steps of the strange house, boldly passed the servants in the hall, left his coat and hat up stairs and returned to the drawing room.

"Carter, Carter, Carter?" muttered the overdressed but kindly looking woman who greeted him there, tapping him on the arm with her fan and giving him a hearty shake of the hand.

"I'm delighted to see you, Mr. Carter."

"It was awfully kind of you to come," said the slender young girl at her side as he formally greeted her. And when he passed on she whispered to her mother: "I'm sure I didn't send him cards. Why, it's Bennington Carter!"

My friend forced his way through a crowd of people he did not know and muttered imprecations on himself for wasting precious time at such a place. She would never be here. He would slip out at once. What! Could he believe his eyes? Yonder she sat in a cozy corner of the dining room, a tall young man bending over her.

"Why, Mr. Carter!" she cried as he rushed breathlessly up to her.

"How in the world did you happen to come here?" he exclaimed.

"S-sh!" The young man moved away, and she whispered apologetically: "Close business friends of my father's. But pray what brought you here?"

"I followed you."

"Shadowed me! That was very polite of you."

"But I wanted you to guess some more," he stammered.

"Oh!" The girl blushed deeply and fixed her eyes on the carpet.

"Be quick," he said.

"Ethel Van Blunder," said she in a scarcely audible voice. She half arose from her chair.

Carter glanced behind him and saw Denby pushing his way through the crush about the tea table. "Oh, hurry!" he blurted out. "You must guess before you sail, or I'll never be happy."

"I've guessed," she said demurely. "I'm very glad to see you, Mr. Denby."

"I've followed you all over town," exclaimed Denby, totally oblivious of the presence of his despised rival. "But at last!"

"I'm so sorry," she said, moving toward the drawing room. "I'm so late now that really I must be going. But, Mr. Carter, I really forgot. Let me remind you that we expect you to dinner at 7. You can tell me all about it then."—New York Sun.

Culture Alone Not Sufficient.

In our days culture has been proposed as a substitute for religion and poetry offered as a better guide for our lives than the loving word of God. "More and more," says Matthew Arnold, "mankind will discover that we have to turn to poetry to interpret life for us, to console us, to sustain us. Without poetry our science will appear incomplete, and most of what now passes with us for religion and philosophy will be replaced by poetry." But it were as well to offer moonlight instead of warm sunlight, for poetry and culture are largely a reflection of religion, and history shows us that they cannot long survive its absence. Men of a vaguely speculative bent and a more than ordinary share of refinement, like Matthew Arnold or Emerson, may here and there be found, who think they find in culture all that they need to direct and purify their lives. Aesthetic movements and Brook Farm experiments may, when they are successful, beget an elevating influence for a time, but in the end culture, left to itself, will become the culture of Nero and Petronius Arbiter and society that of Herculaneum and Pompeii.—American Quarterly Review.

A St. Louis Experiment.

The advanced or advancing women of St. Louis are to have a billiard room of their own, with the incidental accompaniments of a bowling alley, a place in which to read the papers and a mysterious something or other things rather vaguely described as "other features." All this is to be provided as a strictly business venture by a man who has hitherto sought only the patronage of masculine players of the scientific game, and to his new establishment he proposes to admit any woman, whether alone or accompanied by a husband, brother or sweetheart. Nothing is said about friends or mere acquaintances, but it is probable that they, too, will be allowed to enter when properly introduced and professing an inclination to assume in proper time one or the other of the nearer and dearer relationships. The experiment has as yet been tried in only one place—Vienna. There it is said to have worked well, and St. Louis is watching with interest to see what the developments will be on American soil.—St. Louis Correspondence.

Complexion.

Lillie S. formerly had an exceedingly beautiful complexion, but of late has begun to grow pale, and is losing her good looks, which she very much regrets. She asks what she can do to restore her complexion and keep the roses in her cheeks. Answer: Why do you not consider your case carefully and see if you have not made some changes in your habits? Perhaps your manner of living is different, and maybe your diet. As for the care of the complexion, it is a problem. Of course, the girlish freshness goes with advancing years, but with care one may do much to keep it. Among the very best measures are the Turkish or Russian bath. Anything to induce free perspiration is of great use in clearing the skin if the pores have been clogged. Then continued care is needed that they are kept free from dust or the deposits of perspiration. The face should be washed every day in tepid water and dried with a very soft linen cloth. Nothing is more injurious to a delicate skin than the rubbing and scratching with coarse towels which some people seem to think is needful. An authority on complexions says that a paste made of rye flour and linseed meal is one of the very best applications for clearing the complexion. It must be made thick, and applied as a mask and worn for fourteen hours without removing. If worn every night for ten nights there will be a most wonderful change in the appearance. One can well afford to make extra long nights for the sake of securing a good complexion. When the paste is removed, the face must be well washed with tepid water, and very gently rubbed with a little cold cream, which is excellent when made as follows: Spermacetti, 500 grammes; pure wax, 100 grammes; oil of sweet almonds, 500 grammes; rose water, 50 grammes. Put the wax and spermacetti into a vessel placed in a kettle of boiling water; stir them gently until melted. Pour the mixture into a marble mortar and allow it to become cool. Then stir it gently for an hour, add six drops of essence of roses, and beat the mass until it is perfectly smooth and white. Applied to the face after bathing or exposure to the sun, the cream has a very soothing and healing effect.

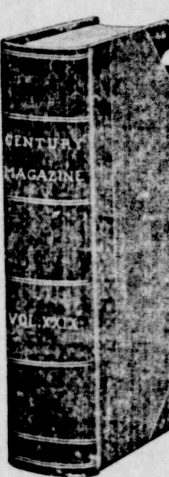

Narrow, fancy belts are quite as popular as ever, and the latest novelty is of white leather, with clasps of gold and turquoise. The belt clasps are all more ornate than ever, being studded with rhinestones, imitation jewels and pearls and fashioned in rococo designs of both enameled and plain gold.

Ry. here, says: 'I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer—am never without it in my family. I consider it the best remedy of the kind manufactured. I take pleasure in recommending it.' It is a specific for all bowel disorders. For sale at C. D. Stevens' pharmacy, corner Main and Milwaukee.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism. From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register. Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had heard of Chamberlain's Balm, and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. The 25 and 50 cent for sale at C. D. Stevens' pharmacy, Cor. Main and Milwaukee.

A Special Sale of Large Size Dinner Napkins $1.49 per Dozen.

We have secured at our own offer 100 dozen of full size DINNER NAP-KINS. They are a beautiful quality of the double damask, fine and heavy, and warranted all pure linen. They are as good a Napkin as we ever sold over our counter for $2.50 a dozen, and in the ordinary way would be considered bargains at that price. It is our candid opinion that they cannot be matched in any Janesville store for $2.50, and are quite sure you will agree with us when you see them.

We bought them at about half price and for that reason we shall give our customers---as we always do---the full benefit of our purchase.

There are only 100 dozen of them: ten beautiful patterns of ten dozen each.
When they are gone that ends it. Better come at once if in need or going to be in need of Napkins for the next year.

Stop and think! Did you ever buy a large, fine Dinner Napkin at $1.49 a dozen? Your own good judgment must tell you that these are bargains.
